

Imex

Sandesh Nimhan

Binghamton University

Imex is a smart android/web application that will change common peoples life for betterment of their daily work. It can be used by millions of people for managing and analyzing their daily expenses. It scans/takes a picture of a receipt and analyzes and stores the important content and by analyzing patterns and repeated actions it tells how much? where? when? user have spent money. All expenses can be managed.